

TableWare

INTERNATIONAL

Month: July/August 2021 Issue: 3 Volume: 143

W Mf

Las Vegas calling

Las Vegas Market takes place from August 22 to 26 – the summer edition promises tableware buyers plenty of choice with an eclectic mix of product ready for perusal

Twice a year Las Vegas plays host to one of the most exciting cross-category markets and this year is no different. Buyers from a myriad of disciplines are attracted to the exhibition – think home furnishings, gift and design trades – with retailers, buyers, interior designers, architects, specifiers and purchasing companies all congregating in one place.

FACTS

4,000+ the number of brands showcasing at Las Vegas Market

You'll find exhibitors in the housewares, gourmet and tabletop categories in Building C on floors 1 and 11. Coming off the back of a global pandemic, all things home enjoyed a resurgence in popularity – designing the perfect table has become an art form enjoyed by the many rather than the few. Addressing the upward swing in the housewares category, Las Vegas Market's organisers IMC say: "Millions of consumers have rediscovered the joy of entertaining at home during 2020, and the housewares category is a sizzling product pick at retail in all areas of the country. Leisurely meals, delicious food, and an artfully set table are top of mind in gift shops and stores, and sellers with a product smorgasbord of offerings are enjoying the rewards of a well-stocked inventory.

At Las Vegas Market, housewares, gourmet and tabletop brands include all of the ingredients required for a successful, memorable entertaining recipe. From cookware to cutlery to gourmet and more, the mix is magical at Las Vegas Market."

www.lasvegasmarket.com

Casafina C123

Casafina bring an exciting holiday collection to market. The Nutcracker collection has been inspired by Hoffman's tale and Tchaikovsky's subsequent ballet of the same name.

Casafina's collection reproduces beautiful scenes from the much-loved classical ballet, bringing music, dance and magic to the table.

Consisting of several dinnerware, serveware and decorative pieces, The Nutcracker showcases original illustrations that capture the ethereal images from the beloved ballet.

This complete collection will delight both adults and children and make the holiday season more meaningful and memorable.

www.casafinagifts.com

Mariposa C507

Along with a host of decorative items, Mariposa will showcase a range of tableware. Joining the white alabaster dinner plates, dessert plates and chargers are wine glasses and much more.

<https://mariposa.com>

Studio A Home

A153

Joining sister company Global Views at Las Vegas is Studio A Home. Visit the stand to see an on-point array of decorative products, of interest to tableware buyers will be this deckled edge collection in matte white.

www.studioa-home.com

Bloomingville

C796

Visit the Bloomingville stand at Las Vegas to see a host of quality products. Their stoneware bowl is a great staple to have in any kitchen. At 3.75 inches round, it can easily be set out and filled with olives, salt, or any other chef essential.

Meanwhile, the Round Mango Wood Cake Stand is an easy way to add a pop of natural decor in your kitchen. Made out of enameled mango wood, this cake stand is perfect for displaying cakes, homemade desserts, or a cheese board. Finally the set of three mango bowls includes a tray and three spoons. This set of seven can be used for salt and pepper or other spices or condiments. They sit snugly into the mango wood base for security when passing around the table. Matching small spoons are wonderful for sprinkling the spices or condiments onto your food.

Bloomingville.us

Global Views

A153

Bringing a stylish collection of home accessories to Las Vegas is the Global Views team. Think slip moulded Portuguese ceramic vases influenced by the shape of a Japanese kimono or ceramic pitchers reminiscent of Greco-Roman serveware.

www.globalviews.com

Creative Co-Op

C712

Visit the Creative Co-Op stand at Las Vegas to check out their 8" Round Stoneware Fruit Baskets with Reactive Glaze. Coming in a set of two, these bowls are perfect for serving fruit but can also be used to display dish towels and other accessories. Also see the set of two stoneware mango bowls includes matching spoons. This stoneware bowl set is a great staple to have out at any special occasion. Ideal for olives, salt, or any other appetiser essential.

Meanwhile, also make note of two round marble trivets which are perfect for adding style to any table. Decorative trivets can become part of the table decoration and already be in place when time to set out the food. This unique and modern trivet will be the perfect gift for the stylish chef.

www.creativecoop.com

