LAS VEGAS MARKET

23-27 January 2022
 Las Vegas Market,
 Las Vegas
www.lasvegasmarket.com

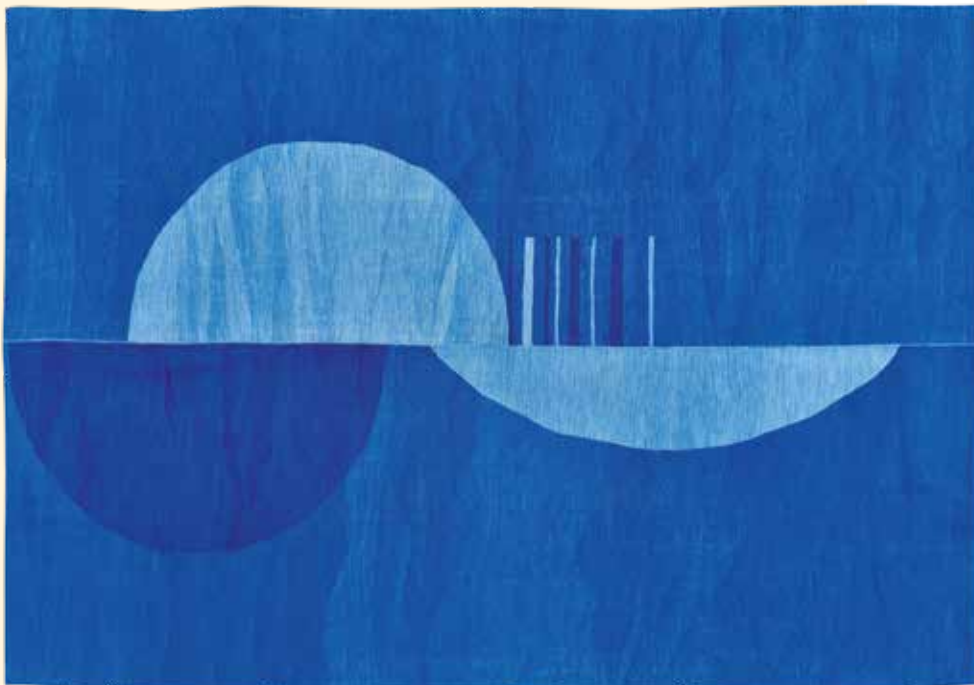

For many in the US, Las Vegas Market will be the first live show of 2022, setting up businesses and buyers for the year ahead. The big US brands such as Safavieh and Nourison will be in attendance, offering the full range of qualities and constructions. The collaborative Polly Collection from the Chris Loves Julia x Loloi line will take centre stage at Loloi, while Harounian Rugs International's performance lines will be of interest to many. Other noteworthy exhibitors include Kalaty, Kaleen and KAS. The Las Vegas Market 2022 Design Icon has been announced as Kathryn M. Ireland, interior and textile designer, who with her eye for pattern and texture will be an exciting addition. International buyers that fancy a trip to see the best of West Coast style can take advantage of a number of incentives.

MAISON & OBJET

20-24 January 2022
 Parc des expositions de
 Paris Nord Villepinte, Paris
www.maison-objet.com

In Europe, Maison & Objet will be the choice of fair for those that want to start off the year by inspecting interior products in real life. Handmade rug companies are spread across several categories of the show. Portuguese brand Ferreira de Sá will be found in Hall 6, while Kilims Ada and Agacan Carpets, both from Turkey, belong to the 'Unique & Eclectic' section. One of the charms of Maison & Objet is discovering new boutique brands that would otherwise have passed one by; it will be exciting to see what 2022 will have to offer in that space.

As has become customary, Paris Déco Off, the premier home decor and design event in the French capital, will run concurrently with the show. This brings with it the added impetus of chic showroom exhibitions and launches.
