Las Vegas Market is the gift that keeps on giving for retailers – we take a look at what you can expect during the winter edition

What? Las Vegas Market | When? 29 January – 2 February, 2023 | Where? World Market Centres, Las Vegas

Las Vegas Market takes place from 29 January to 2 February and promises to deliver a fantastic array of products for visiting buyers.

Along with a varied array of exhibitors, those attending the market can also tap into a vast knowledge bank of speakers at the many events and seminars being hosted over the course of the trade fair.

On Tuesday 31 January, Bob Negen of WhizBang! Retail Training will give a talk entitled "How to be the store of choice in a world of infinite possibilities".

The pandemic has accelerated change in retail, but particularly for small to mid-sized independent retail. Pre-pandemic, the store was the focus of the brand, and driving in-store traffic was the main goal of most marketing. Now, and in the post-pandemic future, consumers expect many ways to shop, interact, and buy from a brand. This talk is an exploration of this trend and how to get on the front (and profitable) side of this trend. Bob Negen is a retail expert, author, speaker, business coach, and co-founder of WhizBang! Retail Training and will be sharing insights and strategies for action during this informative presentation. This takes place at C1212.

On Wednesday, 1 February, Glen Peloso of Glen Peloso Design will give a Design & Home Highlights Tour. Meet in the lobby of Building A, attendees will be treated to a presentation looking at understanding the global market movements, trends and what inspires designers and retailers in furniture and home goods. The tour is perfect for designers and retailers who are new to Las Vegas Market and would like an overview of how to make good use of what the market has to offer. Leading this tour is Glen Peloso, international TV personality, design writer, trend spotter, international buyer and founder of Glen Peloso Design in Canada. With Glen's experience and knowledge, this tour will showcase and encompass those added layers while visiting resources that are best suited to designers completing residential design projects and seeking an international flair not always found with your local retailers. ## Don't miss... Rosanna

Rosanna will be showcasing their SS '23 collections at Las Vegas on the Stephen Young booth

(C1101 | C1112 | C1196)

For Spring 2023 Rosanna is introducing three new collections that encourage us to shake off the cold of the winter months and welcome the emergence of spring.

Whether wild or domestic, creatures great and small bring us peace and wellbeing. We're never too young to encounter them, and we're never too old to receive their comfort.

For little ones, Rosanna has created Snacks With Forest Friends, featuring hand-painted furry woodland friends on mugs and small bowls; pieces sure to become a child's favorite dishes. For adults, they have made Peaceful Kingdom, with beautiful images of wildflowers and animals. With these pieces, they channel the calm that comes from watching deer graze a field on a warm summer eve.

The third collection this season is La Jardinière. French for "the gardener," this set takes inspiration from the gardener's intimate relationship with the natural world through growing food. Hand-painted dipping dishes, pasta bowls, an olive oil bottle, and a serving tray depict the gorgeous bounty that comes from time spent in the garden.
